Antisemitism and Capitalism

- Antisemitism is a tool used by capitalists to divide workers
- Antisemitism serves a social function which intends to disconnect working class people from one another
- Antisemitism works the same way as other reactionary ideas like racism, sexism, xenophobia, homophobia, and transphobia
- Under socialism in the Soviet Union, antisemitism was made illegal by the Soviet Constitution

Zionism

Zionism divides the Jewish working class by convincing Jews that the solution to all our problems can be fixed by having a nation to call our own. This is incorrect however, class divisions still exist in Israel, just like any other capitalist society.

Theodore Herzl was a leading figure in the Zionist movement, he was responsible for the “Uganda Plan” which would have seen a Jewish state in Africa. Herzl cared more about creating a Jewish state than the Jewish working class. His book Der Judenstaat even blames the Jewish people for antisemitism; “The Jewish question exists wherever Jews live in perceptible numbers. Where it does not exist, it is carried by Jews in the course of their migrations. We naturally move to those places where we are not persecuted, and there our presence produces persecution”.
